Uttarakhand. The occasion was graced by our Mentor, the former Governor of Uttarakhand & Sikkim, Shri Sudarshan Agarwal ji and his wife, Smt. Usha Agarwal along with Ms Jaspreet

Pannu, Director- Development & Resource Mobilization. Shri Virendra Dayal, Shri N Ravi Shanker, Shri Hemant K. Arora, Smt Sangeeta

Agarwal, Shri Sameer

Dhingra, Dr S Farooq, Dr Kavita A Sharma, Shri John Mason, Shri David Hilton, Shri Rakesh Oberai, Shri Prem Bhalla, esteemed Board members of the Himalayan School Society under whose aegis the Him Jyoti School is being run; made the event more prestigious by their gracious presence.

The much-awaited day began with the inauguration of the Solar Power Plant that was set up on the rooftop of the school hostel building. Shri Trivendra Singhji Rawat appreciated the steps taken up by the school management towards the use of renewable energy source and for sharing the excess with others. A short cultural programme was presented by the students to welcome the honourable Chief Minister. The Chief Minister was impressed by the beautiful rendition on the woeful condition of the holy Ganga by the school choir. The song 'Ganga' is written by Shri Amit Lakshwal and composed by the Band- Malhar.

Our Mentor, Shri Sudarshan Agarwalji, spoke passionately about the realisation of his dream and the outstanding achievements of the school over the years. Shri Trivendra Singhji Rawat was in awe of the exceptional work done by the school. The honourable Chief Minister promised a stretch of land in the Kumaon region for the replicating Himjyoti. The programme concluded with the Vote of Thanks given by the school Head girl, Roshnee Pradhan.

It was a remarkable day for Him Jyoti, as the day began with the joyous news of the school team winning the football trophy at the Prime Minister U-19 Girls Football Tournament also.
