

Republic Day 2017

A journey from We to Us the 68th Republic Day was celebrated in all its solemnity, grandeur and spirit at the Him Jyoti School, Dehradun. Mrs. Kavita Singh, Principal Him Jyoti School and Mrs. Priya Aggarwal, Principal Him Jyoti Vocational Institute jointly hoisted the National flag, followed by the National Anthem. The girls of Him Jyoti School expressed presented their patriotic fervor through songs, dances and drill display. The Principal of both the institutions spoke about the sanctity of the occasion and threw light on various steps to be undertaken by the students who are the future citizens of the country.

Flag Hosting

Mrs. Priya Aggarwal – Special Guest

On this auspicious occasion, celebrations took a positive step towards solidarity, good-will and brotherhood when both Him Jyoti institutions jointly celebrated the day. The Him Jyoti Vocational Institute students were invited to showcase their talents, which they did so with class. This indeed was in keeping with the spirit of the day.

Students of Him Jyoti School

Student of Him Jyoti Vocational Institute

It was a fresh initiative on the part of Mrs. Kavita Singh, Principal Him Jyoti School to bring both these institutions together so that they can march forward and together accomplish the dream of its Mentor and Founder Shri Sudarshan Agarwal Ji, former Governor of Uttarakhand and Sikkim. It was a day of realization that transformation is possible when we realized that we all are one and together can create heaven on earth.

Students of Him Jyoti School performed in ONGC